Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee:

Section 1. Section __ Tennessee Code Annotated is amended to read: Automated Telephone Solicitation

(1) No person shall use a telephone or knowingly allow a telephone to be used for the purpose of offering any goods or services for sale or conveying information regarding any goods or services when such use involves an automated system for the selection and/or dialing of telephone numbers and the playing of a recorded message when a connection is completed to the caller which does not disengage or terminate when the party called replaces the receiver on his telephone.

(2) Nothing herein shall prohibit the use of automated telephone systems with recorded messages when the calls are made or messages given solely in response to calls initiated by the person to which the automatic call or recorded message is directed or when the calls made concern goods or services that have been previously ordered or purchased.

(3) Any person who violates any provision of this Section is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined up to $1,000 and/or sentenced to 11 months and 29 days in the County Jail.

(4) The District Attorney General of the County in which or from which automated calls are made may seek injunction relief to enforce this Section and recover such statutory damages and attorney's fees as are set out below. In addition to the District Attorneys General, an individual or groups of individuals who have received such automated calls may seek injunctive relief to enforce this section on behalf of themselves and/or on behalf of others similarly situated.

In the event an individual or corporation is found to be in violation of this statute in a civil action, a Court shall tax a civil penalty against the offending party in the amount of $1,000 for each call made in violation of this statute.

(5) Any civil penalty collected pursuant to this Section shall be paid into the general fund of the State of Tennessee. The prevailing party in the cause shall be entitled to necessary expenses and reasonable attorney's fees.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage, the public welfare requiring it.
